

NON-RESIDENT TUITION COLLECTION

Office of the State Superintendent of Education
Office of Enrollment and Residency
2014-2015 School Year

Historical Context

- District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) coordinated the non-resident tuition function prior to the 2014-2015 school year
- Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) is now responsible for collecting tuition from non-resident students

Admission of Non-resident Students

- 2006.1 A non-resident student is defined as a student admitted or seeking admission to the D.C. Public Schools who does not meet any of the criteria for resident-free instruction set forth in § 2000.2.
- 2007.1 Prior to the admission of a non-resident student, the principal or other person in charge of the school or program to which the non-resident student is admitted shall require written proof of payment of non-resident tuition, pursuant to the rules and procedures set forth in this section.

LEAs must ensure that no DC students are on a school's waiting list before considering a non-resident tuition paying student .
