- DC Science
- FYI, Q&A

PARCC UPDATES

2015 Assessment Reporting Timeline

December 2015

- Individual student assessment reports in schools
- 2015 PARCC data on My School DC and in SLED
- State, LEA, and school level data on interactive online platform
- LEAs will have student-level assessment subclaim data, and data for students currently enrolled

2016

- Educators will be able to log into secure side of interactive online platform to view student level data
- Student level DC Science results provided to LEAs

Algebra I Reports

- Because Algebra I was optional for high schools and scores will not be aggregated, student reports for Algebra I will not include comparative information for school and state comparisons.
- Algebra I schools might consider calculating their own comparative information to share with parents. OSSE will create and distribute a template letter to help schools do that.

Spring 2016 Updates

- All LEAs should now have updated Pearson Access Next logins and organization information
 - Dc.pearsonaccessnext.com and trng.pearsonaccessnext.com
 - To-Do: Update all your users, update your organization contact information and add test dates
 - Make sure all non-publics serving your students are in the system, and communicate with them
 - Student uploads coming in January
- PARCC 2016 Spring Administration Manuals and training modules are now available online at parcc.pearson.com
- Coming soon: DC Accommodations Manual

Spring 2016 Updates

- Computer/Paper Policy Announcement in November 18 LEA Look Forward:
 - Computer test administration for students without accommodations will now be the default unless schools receive a hardship waiver from OSSE
 - Schools wishing to test PARCC on paper must submit hardship waiver applications by December 18th to OSSE.Assessment@dc.gov

2015-2016 OSSE Testing Accommodations SEDS Crosswalk

This resource document compares accommodations available for selection in SEDS before and after the School Year 2015-2016 SEDS Release (September 21, 2015) and distinguishes between what is available as a classroom accommodation versus statewide testing accommodation. Additionally, this crosswalk aligns each SEDS accommodation to its equivalent accommodation, accessibility feature, or administrative consideration on each statewide assessment (PARCC ELA/Literacy, PARCC Mathematics, DC Science Assessment). For more information about each accommodation and its eligibility criteria, including instructions for IEP teams in selecting appropriate accommodations, please access resources on the OSSE Testing Accommodations website. For more information about the purposes behind these changes, please reference the LEA Memo on the 5/15-16 SEDS Release.
