A MESSAGE FROM THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT

Dear Friends, Colleagues, and Community Members,

Providing our students and families with an excellent education is a fundamental part of building pathways to the middle class in the District of Columbia. I am fortunate to lead the Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE), which works with child care providers, DC Public Schools, public charter schools, institutions of higher education, community-based organizations, and education partners to ensure success for all our residents, from birth to adulthood.

In my time as state superintendent, many have asked me, “What is OSSE’s role? How can it improve education in the District?” I am pleased to share a document that provides some answers: a strategic plan that commits OSSE to excellence in analyzing education data to inform practice and policy, upholding quality and equity of programs, serving our customers more effectively, and attracting and retaining top-notch talent for our agency.

This plan would not have been possible without input and feedback from a diverse set of stakeholders. We held dozens of candid conversations with educators, advocates, and policymakers about OSSE’s strengths and challenges. We also gathered input from hundreds of dedicated staff members who work at OSSE. We heard valuable feedback about the many ways in which we could and should improve in our work. But, above all, people affirmed the critical role that a highly effective state education agency could play in DC’s education landscape. We are grateful for your feedback and engagement, and look forward to working closely together to build a better future for all of our residents.

Sincerely,

Hanseul Kang

ABOUT OSSE

The Public Education Reform Amendment Act (PERAA) of 2007 spread responsibility for schools in DC across multiple organizations and established OSSE as the DC's state education agency.

Governance for public education in the District of Columbia is more diffuse than in other states

Deputy Mayor for Education (DME)

LEAs, CBOs, and Providers
(DCPS, public charter LEAs)

Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE)

Public Charter School Board (PCSB)

State Board of Education (SBOE)

As the state education agency (SEA) in the District, many of OSSE's responsibilities track those of other SEAs

Oversight of federal and state regulations

LEA support and monitoring

Data reporting and analytics

Grants management

Assessment administration

Early childhood education*

Unlike most state education agencies, OSSE directly engages with families in many important ways.

DC Tuition Assistance Grant

$30M to DC students annually

Summer Meals

1M meals served to children and youth

State Athletics

13,000 students from 47 schools

ReEngagement Center

600 disengaged youth

Special Education Transportation

23,000 miles transporting 3,000 students

*At OSSE, early childhood education encompasses birth to 5 services; in most other states, birth to 3 services are managed by a health and human services agency rather than the SEA

Public schools in DC are on the rise, but we have much more work to do to ensure a quality education for all students

MORE FAMILIES CHOOSING PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Since 2007, enrollment in public schools in the District has increased by more than 13,000 students

STRONG GAINS ON THE NATION'S REPORT CARD

From 2003 to 2015, DC's scores grew faster than the rest of the country in all grades and subjects on the National Assessment of Educational Progress

STEADY PROGRESS ON GRADUATION RATES

Since the 2011-12 school year, DC's graduation rate has increased from 56% to 65%

By 2020, 76% of jobs in the District will require postsecondary education, but we are not currently preparing enough of our students for these opportunities

We believe OSSE can play a unique role in sustaining, accelerating, and deepening the progress being made in DC education by successfully carrying out four key priorities

HIGH-QUALITY
& ACTIONABLE
DATA

OSSE will provide high-quality data and analysis that will empower Local Education Agencies (LEAs), Community Based Organizations (CBOs), and providers to meet the needs of all learners and allow education partners to make informed policy decisions

QUALITY
& EQUITY
FOCUS

OSSE will work with our education partners to set high expectations for program quality and align incentives to accelerate achievement for those learners most in need

RESPONSIVE
SERVICE

OSSE will provide responsive, consistent, and considerate customer service to free up LEAs, CBOs, and providers and allow them to focus on instruction and support for students

TOP-NOTCH
TALENT

OSSE will attract, develop, and retain top-notch talent to build a highly effective state education agency that makes a meaningful contribution to DC education
