

DOT Families –

A First Amendment event, the March for Israel, is scheduled for Tuesday, Nov. 14, on the National Mall. The event may cause delays in student transportation during the afternoon commute. All drivers have been instructed to utilize detours and route deviations to limit the impact to student routes.

We thank you in advance for your patience and understanding. For questions or concerns, please contact the Parent Resource Center at (202) 576-5000. You may also visit our Daily Status Update Page to check on route status. <https://osse.dc.gov/page/daily-dot-updates>.

Text MARCHDC to 888-777 to sign up for the latest updates on street closures, public safety, and more during the #MarchForIsrael.
