WHAT'S NEW IN 2024?

The DC School Report Card is the one-stop shop for comparable data about public schools in the District of Columbia. The Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) collects, verifies, and publishes new data every December on a sleek, mobile-friendly website. In addition, OSSE engages with the public and other education stakeholders to gather feedback and prioritize the most-requested design features and school information. OSSE uses this information to make annual improvements to the website.

NEW DATA

- Student-Teacher Ratios
- Referrals to Law Enforcement
- Student-Staff Ratios
- DC Science Proficiency Rates

NEW FEATURES

- Compare up to three schools across key metrics
- Dig deeper into school accountability data
- Multiple pictures of the school community available

COMING IN 2025

- More robust school program offering data!
- School climate survey data from students, school-based staff, and caregivers!

We encourage you to check out the DC School Report Card at schoolreportcard.dc.gov. If you have any questions, comments, or ideas for OSSE, please email us at dcschoolreportcard@dc.gov.
