

Title IV, Part A: LEA Progress Toward Objectives and Outcomes Report

The data below reflects LEAs' self-reported evaluation of progress made toward achieving Title IV-A program objectives and intended outcomes during the entire grant availability period for the federal fiscal year 2021 (FFY21)/DC fiscal year 2022 (FY22) from July 1, 2021 to Sept. 30, 2023. This report only includes LEAs that did not consolidate or transfer FY22 Title IV-A funds.¹

Local Education Agency (LEA)	Well-Rounded Education	Safe and Healthy Schools	Effective Use of Technology
Capital City PCS	All objectives and outcomes were met.	Substantial measurable progress was made.	Some measurable progress was made.
Cedar Tree Academy PCS	No FY22 funds allocated in this category.	All objectives and outcomes were met.	No FY22 funds allocated in this category.
DC International	All objectives and outcomes were met.	All objectives and outcomes were met.	Substantial measurable progress was made.
Howard University Middle PCS	No FY22 funds allocated in this category.	No FY22 funds allocated in this category.	All objectives and outcomes were met.
District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS)	Some measurable progress was made.	Some measurable progress was made.	Some measurable progress was made.

¹ In October 2023, OSSE hosted a training (linked here) to define the terms of program effectiveness. Additionally, OSSE created and distributed a common self-assessment form to LEAs. This process ensured a systematic approach to collecting LEA data and reporting LEA progress towards meeting objectives and outcomes.