Virginia State University	OSSE is committed to providing high-quality dual enrollment opportunities for District students in public and public charter schools. Dual enrollment opportunities allow high school students to experience the academic rigor of college courses, and understand better what is required of them to succeed in college by enabling high school students to enroll in approved college courses, taken at a postsecondary institution, and earn college and/or high school credit. OSSE is supporting existing summer programs that provide dual enrollment opportunities in order to increase the number of high-quality dual enrollment opportunities for DC public and public charter school students. The amount of $54,600 in funds obligated for the implementation of this program will come from the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations (CRRSA) Act Elementary and Secondary School Emergency Relief Fund (ESSER II), CFDA# 84.425D. As a recipient of ESSER II funds, the program at Virginia State University will be subject to the federal grant's requirements, including that the Office of College and Career Readiness at OSSE will be tracking funds separately, ensuring adherence to allowable uses, requesting information to meet obligation timelines, and using the information and data gathered from the program at Virginia State University to contribute to internal and federally required reporting managed by the Division of K12, Systems and Supports at OSSE (e.g., Project Expenditures and Risks Report, Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA), annual reports).	8/22/2023	8/22/2025

DC Health	The MOU is attached, and the additional attachment is the TEFAP State Plan (PDF) for reference. The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) is a federally funded food distribution program administered through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service (FNS). TEFAP assists with supplementing the diets of low-income Americans, including the elderly, by providing them with emergency nutrition assistance at no cost. Under TEFAP, commodity foods are made available by the USDA to the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia provides these foods to local agencies, such as food banks, which in turn distribute the food to soup kitchens and food pantries that directly serve the public. TEFAP is funded each year through the federal appropriations process and serves as many eligible participants as funding allows. States receiving TEFAP funds are not required to contribute a match. With the USDA's approval, OSSE and DC Health have agreed to transfer control of TEFAP from OSSE to DC Health. Effective October 1, 2023 (Fiscal Year 2024 (FY2024)), OSSE will transfer all responsibilities and management of TEFAP to DC Health and DC Health will operate TEFAP in the District of Columbia. For FY 2024, OSSE will transfer federal TEFAP funds by intra-district transfer to DC Health to manage TEFAP as described in this MOU and its attachments.
