Prince George's Community College	Since late spring 2017, OSSE has been facilitating working group meetings, consisting of school staff who are responsible for providing college and career readiness support to students. The group was convened after OSSE received several requests for assistance with dual enrollment, particularly from charter schools, who were having difficulty finding colleges who would partner with them. Over a series of working group meetings, we identified the dual enrollment consortium as the highest priority initiative. OSSE's role in this endeavor is to facilitate startup (and in out-years, to facilitate continued operations) of bringing local colleges/universities together in the Dual Enrollment Consortium that will admit DC public school students (DCPS and charter) under one recruitment and selection process.	2/9/2023	2/9/2025

DC Health	The Emergency Food Assistance Program (TEFAP) is a federally funded food distribution program administered through the U.S. Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Food and Nutrition Service (FNS). TEFAP assists with supplementing the diets of low-income Americans, including the elderly, by providing them with emergency nutrition assistance at no cost. Under TEFAP, commodity foods are made available by the USDA to the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia provides these foods to local agencies, such as food banks, which in turn distribute the food to soup kitchens and food pantries that directly serve the public. TEFAP is funded each year through the federal appropriations process and serves as many eligible participants as funding allows. States receiving TEFAP funds are not required to contribute a match. With the USDA's approval, OSSE and DC Health have agreed to transfer control of TEFAP from OSSE to DC Health. Effective October 1, 2023 (Fiscal Year 2024 (FY2024)), OSSE will transfer all responsibilities and management of TEFAP to DC Health and DC Health will operate TEFAP in the District of Columbia. For FY 2024, OSSE will transfer federal TEFAP funds by intra-district transfer to DC Health to manage TEFAP as described in this MOU and its attachments. Beginning October 1, 2024 (Fiscal Year 2025 (FY2025)), DC Health will receive TEFAP funds directly from USDA, which receipt will be memorialized under separate agreement between USDA and DC Health.	10/4/2023	9/30/2024
