

Alternative Program Designation Application (School Year 2023-24)
Released: Sept. 6, 2022

Effective June 14, 2019, a new chapter titled “Alternative Program” was added to Subtitle A “Office of the State Superintendent of Education” of Title 5 “Education” in the District of Columbia Municipal Regulations. This chapter sets forth the eligibility criteria for a school or specialized program within a school to be designated as an alternative education program and establishes the application process.

Process

A local education agency (LEA) requesting an alternative program designation for a school or program within a school must complete the below information, on behalf of schools or specialized programs within a school under their jurisdiction, and must follow the submission details outlined in order to be considered for alternative program designation.

1. LEAs must complete the Alternative Program Designation Application provided by OSSE.
2. LEAs must submit the completed application to Dr. Antoinette Mitchell, assistant superintendent of Postsecondary and Career Education with a copy to Elizabeth Schiemann, management analyst, and Ryan Aurori, director of Budget and Finance (see below for contact information).
3. After the LEA, on behalf of schools or specialized programs within a school under their jurisdiction, submits an application to OSSE, that application must be approved in order to be eligible for alternative program designation.
4. Applications may be submitted via email or mail using the following contact information:

For a school, or a specialized program within a school, that does not have a prior alternative program designation or that is applying for this designation for the first time, the designation shall take effect for the 2023-24 school year.

For a school, or specialized program within a school, with a prior alternative program designation, the prior designation shall remain for the 2022-23 school year and the new designation shall take effect for the 2023-24 school year.

Timeline

For the 2023-24 school year application cycle, LEAs have 30 calendar days in which to submit their completed application once the application is released by OSSE.

Following the application deadline, OSSE has 30 calendar days to review the application and do one of the following:

- Determine that the information contained in the application is sufficient to approve alternative program designation;
- Determine that the information contained in the application is sufficient to deny alternative program designation; or
- Request an additional two-week window to collect additional information from an LEA including but not limited to, data verification of student population, verification of student full-time enrollment status, and additional documentation of programmatic approach.

OSSE will notify LEAs in writing regarding the status of their request for alternative program designation.
