

LEA Name		Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Office of the State Superintendent of Education		2018-19	2019-20	2020-21	2021-22	2022-23	2023-24
Office of Career and Technical Education Programmatic Priorities
Administration	1	Programmatic uniformity exists across all CTE programs through common structure of standards and course elements
	2	CTE courses are academically rigorous and aligned to business and industry workforce needs
	3	The utilization of data quality standards and analysis practices for continuous CTE program review and improvement
	4	CTE programs are implemented with fidelity across all schools in the District
	5	Positive placement data and practices meet the Carl D. Perkins Act definitions and intentions
	6	Business and Industry participate in curriculum reviews and provide ongoing input with regards to the evolution of CTE programs based on workforce needs
	7	Relevant Professional Development opportunities are provided for CTE leaders, school counselors, and CTE teachers for the advancement of CTE programs
Guidance and Advisement	8	Seamless transitions exists for students to matriculate from middle school CTE programs to high school CTE programs, and high school CTE program to postsecondary CTE programs and/or career entry
	9	Seamless transitions exist for students to matriculate from workforce development training programs to two-year degree programs and from two-year degree programs to four-year degree programs
	10	Parents, students, and the community are aware of CTE program offerings and their benefits
	11	CTE students receive support with academic skill attainment
	12	All students have equal access to CTE programs
	13	All students will have access to a career awareness program
	14	14. Nontraditional careers are promoted and students enrolled in nontraditional CTE programs receive academic and technical skill attainment support
Programs	15	Articulation and/or dual enrollment opportunities exist in every CTE program of study
	16	CTE students have access to participate with the aligned career and technical student organization (CTSO)
	17	Middle school CTE programs exist and support a student's academic and career planning
	18	CTE students have access to, and successful perform on, relevant industry credentials
	19	CTE programs are equipped to current business and industry standards and students are receiving instruction that meets business and industry employment needs
	20	Work-Based Learning opportunities exist in every CTE program of study					