Mission and Vision Statement

Mission

Increase and disseminate the knowledge of the theory of community schools by: sharing and developing best practices; building a collection of resources; bringing intentionality to the work; and seeking broad input from all stakeholders on current practices and development of a community schools tool kit.

Vision

That schools have the knowledge to implement community schools; maximizing educational opportunities for every child and their families.