

All About OSSE's Reorganized Website

A NEW, MORE INTUITIVE BROWSING EXPERIENCE

Our website is the virtual front door to our agency – where parents, educators, staff in schools, community members, and advocates go to find information about our role and what we do. Previously, it was difficult for users to navigate to their desired content. But now, we have reorganized our website to bring a new and intuitive content experience to our website visitors.

What's New?

Navigate by audience

We have aggregated popular content in the navigation bar for Students and Families, Educators, staff in LEAs and Schools, and staff in Child Development Facilities. Each of these sections includes the most relevant for visitors in that group.

The Library

The Library section, previously called Publications, includes a searchable database of all documents on the OSSE website, including reports, policies, grant announcements, and news releases.

Navigate by topic

For visitors interested in a specific topic of information, the Topics tab allows you to browse by subject area, including assessments, K-12 education, early learning, student transportation, health and wellness, and more.

Improved site-wide search

We have cleaned up old and outdated content, improving the functionality of the search bar on the top of the page.

Where's My Content?

Our new site navigation structure means some information may have moved or changed. Use the chart below to help you locate pages or information. If you still can't find something, please let us know at OSSE.Communications@dc.gov.
