

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

OFFICE OF THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT OF

EDUCATION

MEMORANDUM

TO: Adult Education Program Providers

FROM: Philip L. PremDas, State GED Administrator
Office of the State Superintendent of Education

DATE: Dec. 15, 2021

SUBJECT: Online Proctored (OP) GED Testing Availability and Price

---

GED Testing Service (GEDTS) and the Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) have agreed to continue the availability of Online Proctored (OP) as an elective GED testing option to District of Columbia (DC) residents should they so choose.

The pilot phase concluded on Aug. 31, 2021. GEDTS extended to OSSE the continued availability of OP testing. As of Dec. 16, 2021, OP testing will continue as a free-standing option available to DC residents through GEDTS at a cost of $36.00 per test module.

OSSE is pleased to announce that there will be no change in pricing for In-Person testing and DC residents will continue to enjoy the reduced cost of $3.75 per test module. In-Person testing remains available at the GED Program Office (GEDPO) located in the Marion S. Barry, Jr., Building located at 441 4th St. NW, Suite 370 North, Washington, DC 20001. Appointments for both Online-Proctored and In-Person testing are required and available through the www.GED.com web portal which can be accessed 24 hours a day.

The GED Program Office is available on (202) 481-3950 to respond to any inquiries.