

DISTRICT RESIDENTS: WE NEED YOUR INPUT!

Help craft the District of Columbia's strategic plan for supporting families with young children from birth to 5 years-old.

The District of Columbia was awarded a Preschool Development Grant and is creating a five-year strategic plan for how to coordinate benefits for families and young children, including child care, educational, financial and social supports.

Your input will help shape the District's plan to support our city's families with young children.

We are particularly interested in hearing from families with children from birth to age 5, who have children with developmental delays and/or disabilities, have children in foster care, have experienced homelessness or have low incomes, and from professionals that work with these families.

Participants may choose to participate in either or both types of workshops to provide feedback on strategic plan content:
