For year two of the DC School Report Card, OSSE has developed a few new resources and updated tools to assist users in better understanding and using the information provided to start a conversation about our DC Schools. Please check out the website as well as the resources link provided on the page, with special attention to the new Discussion Guide available. The Discussion Guide is a tool to assist users with understanding the types of data available, what it is measuring, why it is important, and types of questions to ask

OSSE has partnered with the Regional Education Laboratory (REL) and Mathematica to participate in a research study sponsored by the Institute for Education Sciences (IES). Please use this link to take the survey and provide your thoughts and views on the design and structure of the report card.
