Procedures

Candidates must complete the application fully. All applications should be typed or computer generated in an easy-to-read font that is no smaller than 11 points. The form may be downloaded from www.principals.org/awards. If the applicant creates an application document rather than using the prepared form, the space allocated for each response must be exactly the same as the space provided on the official application form. Directions and questions must also be included on forms that are applicant generated; i.e., the form that is generated must be identical to the official application.

If you have questions regarding the application form or process, please call 800-253-7746, ext. 308.

Eligibility

Any principal, headmaster, or leader of a public or private middle level or high school from the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Department of Defense Education Activity, or the U.S. Department of State Office of Overseas Schools is eligible to be a state and national principal of the year candidate. Middle level and high schools are defined as those containing some portion of grades 6 through 12.

All applicants must have served as a principal at one or more middle level or high schools for three years or longer.

All candidates must complete the MetLife/NASSP National Principal of the Year application.

Each candidate must be a principal or headmaster and member of NASSP and his or her state affiliate association at the time of selection as state principal of the year. For national finalists, these conditions must also be met at the time of national principal of the year interviews in August and throughout the year of his or her term.

This program is designed to recognize the outstanding leadership of active, front-line principals. It is not recognition of service at retirement or a program to reward current state or national leaders. NASSP must be notified immediately of any change in principalship status. Failure to notify NASSP could jeopardize a candidate’s eligibility for the national award.

National applications from one year may be carried over for two consecutive years; however, applicants will be required to submit current letters of recommendation. Previous state and national winners are eligible to reapply for the award after a period of five years.

Current members and family members of the NASSP Board of Directors are ineligible.

Letters of Recommendation

All applicants are required to submit a total of four letters of recommendation, in original form, one from each of the following:

- Immediate supervisor or current superintendent, on district letterhead
- Fellow principal or assistant principal (at either level—middle or high school)
- Teacher from principal's current staff
- Student, parent, or business/community/government leader.

Each letter should focus on one or more of the selection criteria and should reflect the writer's assessment of the candidate's eligibility based on the performance indicators outlined in the selection criteria. Each letter should address those indicators that reflect the scope of the writer's firsthand knowledge of the candidate's demonstrated excellence in a particular area. As such, each letter is not required to address every performance indicator.

Each letter must be limited to the front side of one 8½" x 11" sheet of paper, with at least 1" margins and a font size no smaller than 11 points. Letters that exceed one page will not be considered. NASSP will not release letters of recommendation without express authorization from authors of letters.

National Judging

Finalists for national principal of the year will be selected from among eligible state principals of the year by a judging panel composed of national leaders in education, leaders of businesses related to education, and staff members of national educational associations. The panel's decision will be based on the written applications and the letters of recommendation. This distinguished panel of judges will interview national finalists and selects two national winners one middle level and one high school principal.

State Recognition and Annual Principal's Institute for State Honorees

Each state principal of the year will be recognized and honored by his or her state association. The nature of the recognition and honors vary from state to state.

NASSP and MetLife will honor all state principals of the year at the Principal's Institute. This event salutes principals and serves as a forum for them to share their experience and expertise with each other as well as with national leaders in education.

National Awards

Six national finalists for the 2010 award will be selected from eligible state principals of the year. The 2010 MetLife/NASSP National Principals of the Year (one middle level and one high school) will be selected from among the finalists and will receive a $5,000 grant. The four finalists each receive a $1,500 grant. The grants may only be used to improve learning at the school (e.g., a special school project or professional development opportunities). The national honorees and finalists will be honored guests at the NASSP Convention in Phoenix, AZ, March 12–14, 2010.
