

2011 DC CAS Security Update, May 2011

OSSE requires all testing irregularities to be reported to the state office. Local Education Agencies (DCPS and public charter schools) are notified and must submit a plan of action to address the irregularity.

STATUS of 2011 REPORTED SECURITY INCIDENTS
DOI	TEST SUBJECT	BRIEF DESCRIPTION of INCIDENT	STATE RESPONSE
4/4/2011	Reading	Testing Administrator read directions for Reading Session 2, instead of Math Session 1.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/4/2011	Reading	Test Administrator scribed responses on student's answer document.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/4/2011	Math	Student did not see stop sign, continued in test booklet.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Reading/Math	Student took 2 reading/2 math tests in one day.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Math	Discrepancy as to which forms to use during which sessions.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Math	Student took phone call during testing; refused to give phone to Test Administrator.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Math	Unapproved accommodations for two students.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	NA	Three teachers, 3 classrooms provided aid to students.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/5/2011	Math	Student did not stop in test booklet after Session 2.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Math/Reading	Test Administrator mixed up answer documents of two students.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Reading	Student did not stop in test booklet after Session 1.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Math	Two students, 2 separate classrooms began Session 3 (up to 4 questions) before being stopped.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Reading	Student accidentally worked in next section without authorization.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/5/2011	Reading	Behavioral issues with several students.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/5/2011	NA	Late testing start left some students without test booklets and in confusion.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/5/2011	Reading/Math	Test Administrators and Proctors used cell phones for emergencies.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/6/2011	Reading	Test Administrator accessed interoffice email to respond to a SPED request.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/6/2011	Reading	Proctor used laptop to send an email during testing.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/6/2011	Reading	Reported use of unauthorized material.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/6/2011	Math	A student copied answer from the student next to him.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/6/2011	Math	Security procedures not followed by Test Administrator.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/6/2011	Math	Inappropriate level of support given to students.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/6/2011	Math	Inappropriate review of test material.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/6/2011	Math	Possible assistance to student.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/7/2011	Math/Reading	Concern by monitor about bathroom trips during testing.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/7/2011	Math	Cell phone used to text during testing.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/8/2011	Reading	Principal observed teacher speaking to student while testing.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/8/2011	Reading	One student completed their test in 20 minutes due to recalling the story and answers from another class.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/8/2011	Math/Reading	Proctor gestured and spoke to student during testing.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.
4/11/2011	Reading	Student used iphone while testing. Examiner removed test, student walked out.	LEA response deemed adequate.
4/11/2011	Reading	Test examiner read test aloud to student.	Comprehensive investigation ordered.