It Takes a City: DC Does it Best! Call for Proposals

Deadline for Proposals: March 27, 2015

OSSE is pleased to announce its final LEA Institute, It Takes a City: DC Does it Best!, to be held May 1-2, 2015, in Washington, DC. OSSE is currently accepting proposals from researchers and practitioners that reflect high quality, innovative best practices.

Proposals should focus on one (or more) of the following strand areas of research and practice: (a) Early Childhood; (b) Special Populations (i.e., instruction, positive behavior supports, related service delivery, secondary transition, ELL); (c) Instruction and the Common Core; (d) STEM and the Next Generation Science Standards; (e) Positive Behavior Supports; (f) Parent/Family and Engagement; and (g) Educator Effectiveness.

The criteria for the proposals will be evaluated according to the following standards:

- Rationale for Presentation
- Participant Outcomes
- Relevance to Learners, Families, and/or Educators of Diverse Backgrounds
- Evidence of Effectiveness

To be considered, completed proposals must be submitted by 11:59pm Eastern Standard Time (EST), Friday, March 20, 2015. Presenters will be notified of their selection no later than Friday, March 27, 2015. The State Institute Committee will review proposals. Sessions that include evidence- and/or research-based practices, emerging ideas, creative trend research, and strategic solutions to current issues that have potential high-yield results will be given preference. Proposals should encourage active learning and audience engagement, leaving time for discussion and interaction.

Interested individuals may submit proposals using the link provided on the Institute's website: DC Does it Best! For questions or difficulties in accessing the online form, please contact the OSSE Teaching and Learning staff at osse.tta@dc.gov or 202-724-7878.

PARCC Personal Needs Profile (PNP) Registration System for Special Populations

This webinar is for any LEA staff who will be assisting in developing the PNP for students with disabilities. This could include LEA Test Coordinators, Special Education Coordinators, data managers, or other LEA personnel. This live webinar will:

- Compare PARCC Accessibility Features versus Accommodations
- Compare testing accommodations in SEDS for students with disabilities to PARCC Accommodations and Accessibility Features
- Clarify documentation requirements in SEDS and the PNP
- Provide guidance on completing the PARCC Personal Needs Profile (PNP)

Date: 2/19/15

Time: 10 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Register with First Book to Bring 40,000 Brand New Books to the District

Having books to read in the classroom is just as important as children having books to read at home. OSSE's Division of Early Learning is teaming up with First Book to help distribute more than 40,000 brand-new FREE books in the District of Columbia to support educators and program leaders serving children in need.

All educators, paraprofessionals, and program leaders serving kids in need across DC are encouraged to sign-up with First Book today to participate in this free book distribution.

HERE'S WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW:

1. Sign up now online with First Book at <http://www.firstbook.org/dcosse>. Signing up is free and takes only minutes to complete. Only individuals who register at the above link will have access to this distribution initiative.
2. Keep an eye on your email. First Book and OSSE will send out more information about where and when books will be distributed in the DC area during April's Week of the Young Child.
3. Help spread the word! If you know other teachers, program coordinators or community leaders serving kids in need in the District, please pass this letter on and encourage them to sign up as well.

Please note, all books received through this campaign are for the direct use of children across the district through educational programs, community outreach events, and programs targeting District families and youth. Books received are not for personal use or resale.

If you have any questions, please contact Brandee Reed.

DC PARCC Administration and Technology Webinars for the Week of February 22

As a follow up to Test Coordinator training, PARCC and OSSE will co-host two webinars the week of February 22 where participants will deep dive into preparation for computer based testing:

1. Demonstration of Pearson Access Next test session setup for test administration. Recommended for: School Test Coordinators
2. Technology configuration of school devices and proctor caching for PARCC. Recommended for: Technology Coordinators

Dates, times and registration information will be announced in next week's LEA Look Forward, and webinars will be recorded and posted to the OSSE website for future reference.

Date: Week of February 22 (specific dates to be announced soon)

Calling all high school students: Selma Speech & Essay Contest

Martin Luther King, Jr. used his words to change history. How will you use yours? To participate, go to LibertyMuseumSelmaContest.org. Grand prize: $5,000! Contest timeline: December 25, 2014 – February 15, 2015.

Who Can Participate?

The National Liberty Museum's Selma Speech & Essay Contest is open to US High School students ages 14-18 (as of the January 30 deadline), who are enrolled in a public, private or parochial high school or home study program in the United States and its territories. After viewing Paramount Pictures film SELMA, contestants will respond to the Contest topic with an original 500-700 word essay and videotaped speech reading of their essay. For rules: libertymuseumselmacontest.org/guidelines

It all started with a speech:

At the age of 15, a young Martin Luther King, Jr. entered a high school public speaking competition with his submission called, "The Negro and the Constitution." He was in his junior year, and he won the competition. On the bus ride home, young King and his three companions were told to give up their seats to a white couple who had just boarded the bus, and they stood for several hours on their way back to Atlanta.

It has been widely written that the high school speech Dr. King wrote inspired his "I Have a Dream" oration, since all of the concepts in his competition submission were encapsulated into the historic 1963 speech. There are striking parallels between the two writings. That is the power of words.

Selma Speech & Essay Contest Topic:

"The movie Selma tells the story of how Martin Luther King, Jr. and others peacefully protested to advance voting rights. What do you think needs to be done today to protect individual freedom and self-determination? What are you doing or will you do to peacefully advance those rights?"

Contest Prizes:

- One grand prize: $5,000
- First runner up: $2,500
- Second runner up: $1,000
- Seven honorable mentions: $500 each
- $300 cash prize for each teacher/mentor who sponsors a top 10 finalist

Contest Timeline:

- December 25, 2014, 12:01am EST: Official Opening of Selma Contest & limited release of Selma film
- January 9, 2015: Wide release in theaters of Selma film
- February 15, 2015, 11:59pm EST : DEADLINE for submissions
- March 2015 Winners notified
- April 20-22, 2015 Award Ceremony held in Philadelphia, PA

The Selma Speech & Essay Contest is made possible through a grant from the John Templeton Foundation and in-kind support of Paramount Pictures.

Reminder

LEAs Must Submit the Names of Non-resident Students

This is a reminder that all non-resident students who attend public schools in the District of Columbia are required to pay tuition. OSSE now manages tuition collection for all public schools in DC. In addition, OSSE now collects all tuition from non-resident students. A school's wait list must be vetted prior to non-resident consideration. If you have not done so, please send a list of all non-resident students to rhonda.baylor@dc.gov immediately. Please include each student's parental contact information (name, email, home address, and telephone number). Ms. Baylor may also be reached at 202-741-5993.

Report Residency Fraud

LEAs are responsible for reporting all cases of suspected residency fraud. Tips may be reported through the Residency Fraud Prevention Hotline at 202-719-6500. Tips may also be submitted through the DC Residency Fraud Online Submission Form. Should you have further questions, please send an email to rhonda.baylor@dc.gov or call 202-741-5993.

Final SY2014-2015 Enrollment Audit Dataset Uploaded to SLED

The final enrollment audit dataset for the SY 2014-2015 UPSFF Population and Child Count Population has been uploaded into SLED for your viewing. Please note that this is the final dataset and no changes can be made. To view your data, please follow the instructions below.

Log into SLED; then click on Enrollment Audit and Child Count in the left navigation menu.

Click the Student Level tab to view the new data elements added to each of the listed displays.

Click on Enrollment Audit UPSFF Population to view your final data. Please be sure to sort by enrollment indicator=yes. Please note that according to the Enrollment Audit Handbook, in order to receive funding for students in Child Count, the student must be considered enrolled based on the audit findings.

The Office of Enrollment and Residency continues to make updates to our enrollment processes and procedures. In an effort to do this, your feedback is necessary. Next week, we will release a quick electronic survey. Please give as much feedback as you can to assist in our planning for the next school year.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact osse.enrollmentaudit@dc.gov.

Guidelines on Unique Accommodations for Statewide Assessments

Requests for unique accommodations must be approved by OSSE prior to use on statewide assessments. Standard accommodations should be considered prior to requesting a nonstandard accommodation. Please review PARCC guidelines for selecting accessibility features and accommodations. You can also access a presentation on selecting, using, and evaluating accessibility features and accommodations, including a SEDS-specific crosswalk.

To apply for a unique accommodation, please complete the PARCC Unique Accommodation Request Form and send to Imani Stutely. Applications will be reviewed on a weekly basis, and should be submitted no later than 4 weeks prior to the week your test window opens. For schools that begin testing March 20 or earlier, please apply by COB on February 13. Please note: For schools that begin testing the week of March 2, OSSE will issue an approval or denial no later than 2 weeks before your test window opens.

2015 X-STEM Symposium

X-STEM, presented by MedImmune, is an extreme STEM symposium for middle through high school students featuring interactive presentations and workshops by an exclusive group of visionaries who aim to empower and inspire kids about careers in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM). These top STEM role models and industry leaders are sure to ignite your students' curiosity through storytelling and live demonstrations.

This all-day event will feature multiple presentation sessions covering a wide array of subject areas including space exploration, paleontology, bio-inspired robotics, marine biology, mathematics of origami, eco-friendly vehicle innovation and much, much more! Student attendees will have the opportunity to sit in on multiple engaging presentations, live demonstrations and hands-on workshops.

LEA Institute II: “It Takes a City to Knock it Out of the PARCC!” Recap

On January 23, 2015, OSSE hosted its LEA Institute II: “It Takes a City to Knock it Out of the PARCC!” at Gallaudet University’s Kellogg Center. This LEA Institute was focused on preparing and gearing up educators for Next Generation Assessments (NGA) including PARCC, NCSC, and NGSS. OSSE invited national and local experts to provide pertinent information and to answer the most pressing questions in the following areas:

- NGA Communication Strategies
- Curriculum Alignment and Best Practices
- Assessment Procedures and Technology Readiness
- Assessment Considerations for Special Populations

Visit OSSE’s website to read a recap of the event and view copies of all the presentations. Save the date for OSSE’s next LEA Institute, which will be held on May 1 and 2, 2015, and will focus on best practices in education.
